356 Poem by B F Rogers
it was the 14th day of April i remember well the day as our gallant little schoons lay at anchor in the bay our hearts were light and buoyant as we striped ourselfs for toil it is heave up the anchors boys and of we go for oil

There is manuel and two Johns making three in all
They are The Valient Portugues from the island of Fayal
There wants must be attended to
By Gleason or else Bill
Fos they are the gay Boatstagers
Of the schoons Yarnum Hill

In speaking of the Portuguese
I thought idle said enough
I will mention the young steward
For he gives us Pork and duff and soft tack he gives us to
As much as we we please
Oh spare a place in Heaven
Fos the blackeyed Portugues

There are twelve of us before the mast
Three have been to sea before
There is Ebe and Sam and seaman Jack from the yankee man of war and Tom and Jim and Gleason
Charley George Steve Frank and Bill
Fos we are the gallus Bummers
Of the schoons Yarnum Hill

357

First before the mast comes Jack
From some southern state
Before we sailed from Provincetown
He said he would be mate
But to talk about such things
It seems all very nice
He shipped as able seaman
And can neither reef or splice

Next comes Sam a Boston Chap
Who is some among the girls
His hair is Black as midnight
And hangs in graceful ~~curls~~^{curls}
Once before he's been a whaling
And cruised round center bay
He made $2 & 30 cents
And got the 150 lay

He hails from old Hamshire
And been to the Black Sea
He also went to China
Where we yet our ~~foreign~~^{foreign} ^{tea} Hongkong
But when we go to Faial
And anchor safe and sound we will go ashore together
And take a drink around

The largest man before the mast
George Heller he by name
He fought in Buells army
And came back home quite lame
But now he thinks that whaling
Is more useful than the sword
And he will fight no longer
In the army of the Lord

There is Bill he is quite a genius
 And from the west he came
 He did not like the country
 And is he much to blame
 He thought he'd be a sailor
 And plough the raging main
 But if he once gets home again
 He will never come again

Tom is a mischievous chap
 He came from Ballywoe
 He sailed in a packet ship
 From Cork to Liverpool
 He came to America
 Sweet freedom to enjoy
 He is the sprig of a Shlaicagh
 And the broth of a boy

Next in rhyme comes Timmy
 He is one of the boys
 He plays with Stephens Windmill
 And various other toys
 He worked in a glass house
 But did not learn to Blow
 He came from that happy land
 Called Canida & Oh

How are you gay young Gleason
 All the way from York
 Oh what a mug has he Boys
 For stowing Beef and Pork
 And when it is his watch on deck
 Against the windlass he will set
 And as often as he falls asleep
 As often he gets wet

354

How are you next little Frank
You are sixteen years of age
He is the smallest boy aboard
His surname it is Page
He draws water for the steward
For he has to clean no craft
He gets the cakes and puddings
The steward brings from aft

These is Steve the Nova Scotian
He can eat his weight in salts
He blows about Victoria
Leikewin the Prince of Wales
He grumbles continually
From morning untill he is asleep
He is the shape of a salpin
And has scales upon his feet

The last in line comes Charley
But though last he is not least
He has three hairs upon his head
And come from way down east
He thought he'd be a soldiers
And go down to Bull Run
And when he returned again
Was with two fingers and a thumb

I must not forget the Cook
If he is so very slow
He gives us soft tack every day
And that is mostly dough
He has a high and lively gait
About as fast i think
As a Mississippi crocodile
Going down to drink

Now comes your humble servant
B Frank Rogers you all know
His fighting weight is 7 stone 10
And he came from Chicago
And when the Voyage is over
To the Westward we will steer
And never will go so far again
From whisky and Lager Beers

And when we all return again
To drift on the sea of life
Or each has settled down
And taken to himself a wife
And when the final day arrives
We will bow to Heavens high rule
Memory will bring back the hours
Spent on the schooners Vassoura Flile
